rates of contribution shall not be less favourable than those specified in section 6 of the Act and the employees shall also be in enjoyment of other provident fund benefits which on the whole shall not be less favourable to the employees than the benefits provided under the Act or any Scheme in relation to the employees in any other establishment of a similar character and those rules shall be followed in all respects.

2. The employer in relation to the establishment (hereinafter referred to as the 'employer') shall within three months of the date of publication of this notification, amend the constitution of the Provident Fund maintained in respect of the establishment in regard to the following matters, namely —

(a) The Provident Fund shall vest in a Board of Trustees and there shall be a valid instrument in writing, which adequately safeguards the interests of the employees and such instrument shall be duly registered under section 5 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882;

- (b) the Board of Trustees shall consist of an equal number of representatives of the employees and the employer and all questions before the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes;
- (c) the employer shall nominate one of his representatives on the Board as the Chairman who may exercise a casting vote if so provided under the rules of the establishment. Where a casting vote is exercised or where no casting vote is exercised but the opinion of the representatives is equally divided, the matter shall be referred to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner or the State Provident Fund Commissioner appointed under the said scheme (hereinafter referred to as the Regional Commissioner) within whose jurisdiction the establishment to which the matter relates is situated and whose decision in the matter shall be final.
- (d) Wherever there is an agreement between the employers and the employees in any manner, it should be left undisturbed, and the election procedure would apply only to future cases. The Boards of Trustees in existence need not be disturbed during their current terms of tenure.
- (e) Subject to what has been stated above, wherever there is a registered union, such unions may nominate workers' representatives. If there is a single registered union recognised statutorily or by a bi-partite agreement, such a union shall nominate the workers' representatives. Where there are more than one Union with an agreement among themselves inter se and the employers as well, such agreement shall operate. If there are a number of unions, or in case there is no recognised union, election should be conducted by the employer for selection of nominees, from amongst the members of the Fund. There shall be single vote, secret ballot and election on a working day. All candidates proposed should be accepted and three top-most candidates should represent the workers on the Board.

3. The Provident Fund rules of the establishment shall not be amended except with the previous approval of the Regional Commissioner. Where any amendment affects the interests of the employees, before giving his approval, the Regional Commissioner shall give a reasonable opportunity to the employees to explain their point of view.

4. (a) The employer shall maintain accounts of the Provident Fund in such manner and submit such returns to the Regional Commissioner as the Central Provident Fund Commissioner may, from time to time direct.

(b) The employer shall furnish to the Regional Commissioner such accounts relating to the Provident Fund of the establishment as the Central Provident Fund Commissioner may prescribe from time to time. He shall also furnish an annual statement of account or a Pass Book, in such form as may be approved, to each subscriber who, but for the exemption, would have been a member of the Fund, established under the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952.

(c) The employer shall make all investment of accumulations accruing after the date of exemption in securities of the Central Government. The reinvestment or conversion of securities on maturity shall also be in the securities of the Central Government. The employer shall formulate a procedure for prompt investment of provident fund moneys and shall get it approved from the concerned Regional Commissioner.

(d) The employer shall submit audited balance sheet relating to the Provident Fund of the establishment every year, to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner.

5. The employer shall afford such facilities for inspection of the accounts of the Provident Fund as the Central Provident Fund Commissioner may from time to time specify.

6. All expenses involved in the administration of the Provident Fund scheme including the maintenance of accounts, submission of accounts and returns, transfer of accumulations and payment of inspection charges shall be borne by the employer.

7. The employer shall display on the notice board of his establishment in English, a copy of the approved rules and the translation of salient points of the rules in the language of the majority of the workers, respectively.

8. The employer shall within 3 months of the date of publication of this notification transfer to the Board of Trustees the accumulations, standing to the credit of the employees who, but for the exemption, would have been members of the Statutory Fund.

9. When the Fund is wound up or exemption of the establishment is cancelled, accumulations standing to the credit of the employees who, but for the exemption, would have been members of the statutory fund, shall be transferred to that Fund as soon as possible and, in any case, not later than 30 days in the case of securities and not later than ten days in the case of cash in hand or bank, together with a statement or statements as may be required by the Regional Commissioner or Commissioners concerned.

10. The employer shall accept the past provident fund accumulations of an employee who is already a member of the Employees' Provident Fund or an exempted fund and who obtains employment in his establishment. Such an employee shall immediately be admitted as a member of Provident Fund of the establishment. His accumulations which shall be transferred within 3 months of his joining the establishment shall be credited to his account.

11. The employer shall provide for nomination in his provident fund rules in accordance with the provisions contained in paragraph 61 of the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952.

12. The amount of contributions shall be calculated to the nearest quarter of a rupee: that is, 12.5 paise or more shall be counted as the next higher quarter of a rupee and fractions of a rupee less than 12.5 paise shall be ignored. The amounts of inspection charges and damages shall be calculated to the nearest 5 paise, that is 2.5 paise or more shall be counted as 5 paise and any amount less than 2.5 paise shall be ignored.

13. On all repayable loans granted by establishments interest shall be charged at the rate of 4½% or 1 per cent above the rate allowed on the balance to the credit of the members whichever is higher.

14. The employer shall pay to the Regional Commissioner Inspection charges payable, failing which damages shall be paid at the rate fixed by the State Government from time to time.

15. Exemption granted by this notification is liable to be withdrawn for breach of any of the aforesaid conditions or for any other sufficient cause which may be considered appropriate.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

B. K. Chowgule, Secretary, Industries and Labour Department.
